Executive Proclamation

Office Of The Governor

WHEREAS, The American Association of University Women is an organization of over 190,000 pluralistic, diverse members who hold no less then a baccalaureate degree from a regionally accredited college or university, joined in advocacy, action, research, and lifelong learning; and,

WHEREAS, The American Association of University Women is the recognition of the richness and sincerity of real sisterhood; an understanding that women working together in concert can achieve common goals; and a recognition that one's personal independence depends upon the strength of one's interdependence; and,

WHEREAS, The American Association of University Women has demonstrated that it has learned the meaning of how to achieve common goals; has moved into the political arena of the state and the nation; and has recognized that housework, the nurturing of children, and women's voluntary experience are undervalued in American society; and,

WHEREAS, The American Association of University Women is the oldest and largest national organization concerned with the advancement of women and education and has been committed to achieving equity for women since its founding in 1882; and,

WHEREAS, The South Dakota Division of the the American Association of University Women is urging all eligible women to join other educated women in membership in the local branch nearest to where they live:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, WILLIAM J. JANKLOW, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim the week of March 16-23, 1980, as in South Dakota, and join the American Association of University Women in achieving their goal.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Fifth Day of March, in the Year of Our Lord, Nineteen Hundred and Eighty
